

MOD3-MW300-Antepartum Pharmacology

1. After receiving the drug terbutaline for preterm labor symptoms a woman complains of heart palpitations and sweaty palms. These symptoms are an example of:
 - a. A side effect of the drug terbutaline
 - b. A side effect of preterm labor
 - c. A physiological symptom of pregnancy
 - d. A pathological symptom of preterm labor
2. All of the following elements are required on a prescription except:
 - a. A physician or authorized person's signature
 - b. The amount of the prescribed drug that is to be taken daily
 - c. Possible drug interactions that can occur with over-the-counter medicines
 - d. The date the prescription expires
3. A client who is 8 weeks pregnant calls wondering if they can take ibuprofen for a headache. You inform them that:
 - a. Ibuprofen is a class A drug and thus safe to take during pregnancy
 - b. Ibuprofen is a class A drug and is therefore unsafe during pregnancy
 - c. Ibuprofen is a class C drug and is therefore safe to take during pregnancy
 - d. Ibuprofen is a class C drug and therefore unsafe to take during pregnancy
4. The most common herbal preparation for using red raspberry leaf in pregnancy is:
 - a. A capsule
 - b. A lotion
 - c. An infusion
 - d. A douche
5. Choose the answer below that best represents an informed consent regarding the recommendation of herbal treatments:
 - a. Although used by many with positive results, there is little unbiased empirical data on the quantity of herbs that is safe during pregnancy.
 - b. Since herbs are natural in origin they are safe for use in pregnancy
 - c. Herbal medicine is much better the pharmaceutical drugs because it does not contain harmful preservatives
 - d. Herbal medicine should not be used during pregnancy as many herbs can damage a fetus
6. Which herb would be recommended to treat nausea and vomiting?
 - a. An analgesic
 - b. An antispasmodic
 - c. An antiemetic

- d. A febrifuge
7. Herbs with which of the following actions would be inappropriate for use in pregnancy?
- Sedative
 - Laxative
 - Hemostatic
 - Emmenagogue
8. The “law of similars” says that:
- Like cures like
 - Symptoms that are similar are of the same origin
 - Symptoms that are similar are of different origins
 - Diluted doses have the strongest effects
9. Homeopathic remedies are best used:
- In conjunction with pharmaceuticals
 - In conjunction with herbs
 - In relationship to a set of symptoms unique to an individual
 - Only under the supervision of a trained homeopathic doctor
10. The homeopathic remedy Arnica 6C has:
- A greater quantity of arnica plant than arnica 6X
 - A greater remedy potency than arnica 200C
 - A lesser quantity of the arnica plant than arnica 200C
 - A greater remedy potency than arnica 6X