

Test-MOD2-HON223G-EV Human Sexuality

1. Which of the following statements is NOT TRUE about factors that influence society's view of sex and sexuality:
 - a. Television media enforces body image standards and defines what is "sexy"
 - b. The internet effects the way people access sex and relationships
 - c. Most people are not influenced by media or mainstream opinions in their views of sex.
 - d. Children are influenced by media images about sex from a young age.

2. Which of the following definitions most accurately defines sexual orientation?
 - a. The desire to have sex with many partners
 - b. A pattern of attraction based on the gender of one's partner(s)
 - c. The perception of one's own gender and gender expression
 - d. A person's sex drive and sexual fantasies

3. Which of the following definitions most accurately defines the concept of "gender"?
 - a. The physical characteristics defined as male and female
 - b. The social characteristics associated with being male or female
 - c. The spiritual qualities of the male and female bodies
 - d. The biological sex assigned to a child at birth

4. People who are born with ambiguous or atypical genitals, sex organs, or sex hormones are known under what term?
 - a. Queer
 - b. Transgendered
 - c. Intersex
 - d. Intergendered

5. Which of the following has the LEAST amount of influence on how young people gain perceptions of sex and sexuality?
 - a. Television media
 - b. Family members
 - c. Peers
 - d. Scholarly resources on sexuality

6. The attachment that infants and children have with their caregivers influences their ability to attach and bond as adults.
 - a. True
 - b. False

7. Which of the following statements is TRUE about intimacy?
 - a. Intimacy and sexual passion are one in the same
 - b. Intimacy can only be found in marriage relationships between a man and a woman
 - c. Intimacy is based on caring, commitment and self-disclosure
 - d. Intimacy is felt primarily during sexual intercourse

8. Which of the following statements is TRUE about communication in relation to sex?

- a. Communication is helpful but not required to have a good sexual relationship
- b. Communication gets in the way of good sex
- c. Nonverbal communication is the best way to communicate about sex
- d. Communication is a vital tool in healthy sexual relationships

9. Which of the following BEST characterizes the interplay between sex and power?

- a. Power does not play a role in sexual relationships
- b. Power dynamics play a role in sex as they do in every other arena of social interaction
- c. Power dynamic role play is a type of gender identity disorder
- d. Power dynamics are usually reversed during sex

10. Which of the following best describes the effects of aging on sex and sexuality?

- a. The physical and psychological effects of aging can lead to changes in sex and sex drive
- b. Sexuality usually stays the same throughout the lifespan
- c. Sexuality changes constantly throughout the life cycle leading to unpredictability
- d. Aging is irrelevant to sex