

MOD8-MW350-Out of Hospital Birth

1. Routine IV usage in the hospital has a positive effect on the birth process.
 - a. true
 - b. false
2. The MWs Model of care includes all below except:
 - a. the monitoring of physical, psychological and social well being of the mother through the childbearing cycle
 - b. provides individualized education
 - c. maximizes intervention
 - d. identifies and refers women who require OB care
3. The MWs Model of care applies to out of hospital birth because:
 - a. remaining in one's home means birth is a natural process
 - b. a healthy women using the hospital suggests that the process is unhealthy, abnormal and medical
 - c. hospital birth suggests birth is a negative process and needs to be controlled by a physician
 - d. a and b only
4. When presented with a mother who is vocalizing her pain, a midwife in an out of hospital setting must always:
 - a. offer massage as a pain reliever
 - b. offer the woman a transfer for medication
 - c. view each situation and woman differently and act accordingly
 - d. use hot water to relax her
5. The statistics for unplanned out of hospital births are almost identical to the statistics for planned out of hospital births.
 - a. true
 - b. false
6. In Ina May Gaskin's book, "Ina May's Guide To Childbirth," she states:
 - a. in the US it is common for surgeons trained in high risk medicine to attend childbearing women
 - b. other countries only use hospitals for high risk situations
 - c. women with midwife attend births have better outcomes
 - d. all of the above:
7. Which is not true about the technocratic model of giving birth:

- a. it treats pregnancy as dangerous
 - b. it treats pregnancy and birth as normal
 - c. birth is pathological
 - d. pregnancy and birth need management
8. The social model of giving birth:
- a. Treats pregnancy and birth as normal
 - b. Honors women's intuition
 - c. Honors collaboration between care providers and the women and their families
 - d. All of the above
9. Common issues that surface when you ask a woman about home birth are:
- a. What if something goes wrong?
 - b. I didn't know midwives existed, I thought they were out of date.
 - c. The hospital is the last place to have a baby, it is for the sick.
 - d. All of the above